

A white peacock is shown from the front, with its tail feathers fanned out in a large, circular display. The feathers are a mix of white and light grey, with some darker spots. The peacock's head is turned slightly to the right. The background is dark and out of focus.

Albinism: a diversity livable, knowledge helps understanding and sharing helps the grow

Rare and worthy of attention

ALBINISM: A DIVERSITY LIVABLE, KNOWLEDGE HELPS UNDERSTANDING AND SHARING HELPS THE GROW

What does it mean to know?

- ☞ Be aware that no living human being is free from genetic defects.
- ☞ Learn what are the biological mechanisms that result in the absence of melanin.
- ☞ Understand what are its consequences for the organism.
- ☞ Learn to distinguish the early manifestations of our "diversity".
- ☞ Knowing that you can make your own difference livable.
- ☞ Identify what are the specialists who can help you make it so.

What does "Understanding" mean?

- ☞ Accept their diversity as a natural event.
- ☞ Identify the form of albinism which you belong to.
- ☞ Do not neglect to contact the experts who will help you to identify it.
- ☞ Understand what your own "diversities" are.
- ☞ Choose a center running full multidisciplinary diagnostic test for global and early framing.
- ☞ Follow the preventive and therapeutic treatments suggested by the specialists.

What does "Sharing" mean?

- ☞ Opening to the outside world.
- ☞ Let others know about your difficulties so that they can help you live better.
- ☞ No fear for being helped by others, who may need your help.
- ☞ Offer your expertise to those who suddenly may find themselves to lead a life in such a condition like yours.
- ☞ Accept the experience of others, it will always be useful.
- ☞ Identify problems with others and try to solve them together, exchanging ideas is always good!

What does "To grow" mean?

- ☞ Improve the state of health of everyone, and not only of oneself by disclosing your own diagnostic experiences.
- ☞ Help make known a "rare disease" to society.
- ☞ Make your diversity livable and therefore be able to lead a life to a full satisfaction as for the family circle, social relations and working condition that everyone has.